

The Wacky Waiter!

Introduction

We were all so excited this evening to present a very funny comedian, but you guys are not going to believe this. Our comedian was all set for his performance and just about 15 minutes ago his expecting wife paged him. As we speak, she is in labor and our comedian had to leave! So we panicked!

We asked the staff here at the _____ and they said they have a waiter who is
Name of hotel or location
working in another part of the _____ and he would like to give it a try. We do
Name of hotel or location
have to warn you that this is the waiter's first night on the job.

So with out further ado, let's give a great big welcome to our waiter!

The MC for the evening will need to speak to Pete Geist-Geist Visual Comedian/The Wacky Waiter before the evening festivities begin. Pete will only need 5 minutes to go over the introduction and several tips on delivering the speech to the misled audience. This is always convincing if the MC does not read the above intro and just improvise. Most important is to just have fun and realize the audience is getting a kick out of the MC trying to pull a fast one. Amazingly you will be surprised on how many people will believe this guy is really a waiter and just coming to the rescue.

Please feel free to call Pete Geist prior to the performance to answer any questions at 717.396.7886 or email petegeist@comcast.net or www.wackywaiter.com

Thank you.
